Beautifully organized event. Kudos to both Ritika & Amit for pulling such a massive task of organizing an event of this scale with such high quality. The fashion show was top notch, the cooking competition was of high standards and the food was amazing. There wasn't a single minute during the entire 5 hr duration that anybody felt distracted. Looking forward to the next one sure.

It was such a pleasure to be a part of Bolycub.ca. My family totally enjoyed the entire event. My daughter actually won the 1st runner up in the cooking competition. The fashion show was amazing and the food was delicious. I had no idea what to expect from this event as it was my first time attending. I highly recommend attending this event in the near future. Total family event. The organizers Amit and Ritika have put their heart and soul into this and the results were superb! Wishing them luck for future events.

One of the best events ever be part off. Unlike other events, this event focussed on children cooking, modeling, games, and many more. Amit and Ritika are individuals with kind heart, helping attitude and with great vision. Congratulations to whole team that made this event very successful. Good luck for future events; can't wait to be part of next event.

Event was managed very nicely and it was such a great experience to meet and greet more people.

Future Vision

It is so important to us that we are constantly innovating for our community. We strive to be unique and creative in our events.

Inclusion

All of our events sell out and have long waiting lists. We want everyone to come and be a part of it.

Involvement

A Mini CNE, we plan to host workshops, Stars Under the Stars and Reel Couples with Real Couples.

All The Ways We Love ZEE TV

A Part of Our Vision

We've loved working with you and can't see our vision without your support and members. An integral part of what we do is bring together our community members with companies such as Zee TV who share the same values as we do.
